

The experiments in warfare between aerial and naval forces off the Virginia Capes. Seaplanes carrying torpedoes to be fired from the air against the battleships taking off in formation.
Navy Official.

The torpedo that missed its mark. A boat crew recovering the spent missile.
Navy Official.

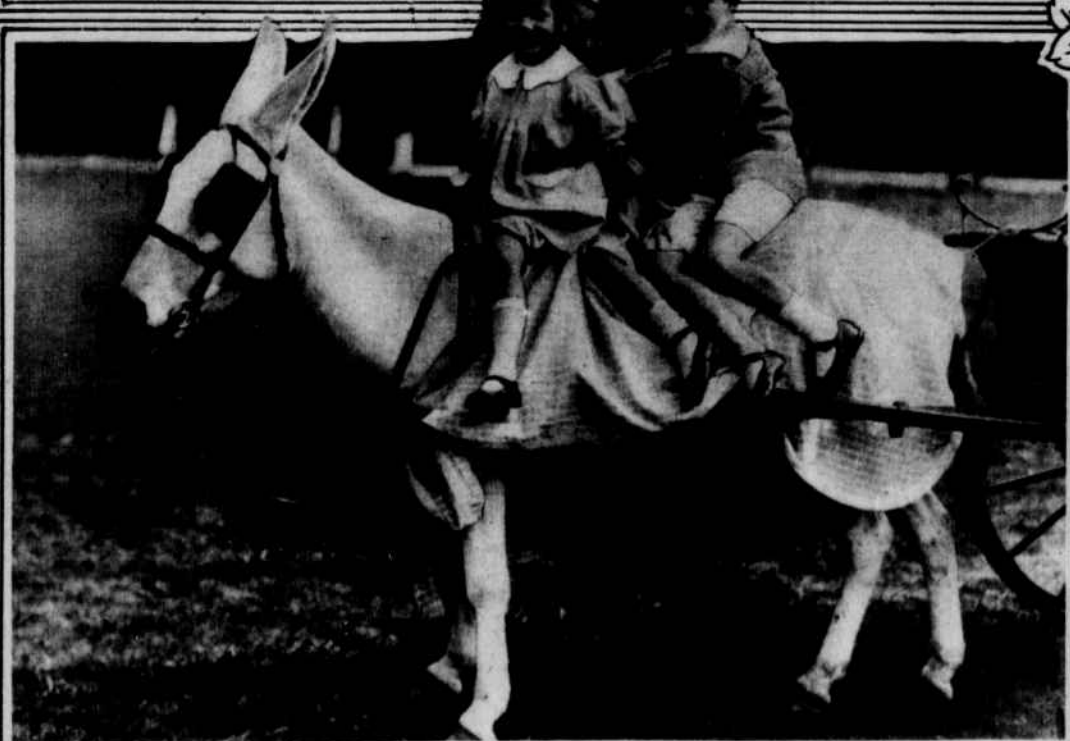

Above—Observation planes of the aerial forces scouting over the battleship fleet.
Navy Official.

At left—Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock on "Cavalier" in the open jumping class at the Piping Rock Horse Show, Locust Valley.
Carl Klein.

Mrs. Kelly Evans, wife of Lieut.-Col. Kelly Evans of Hot Springs and New York, with her blue chow, "Mr. Wu," at Hot Springs for the season.
International.

In their own private show on the sidelines. A group of youngsters at the Piping Rock Horse Show. Master Harry Alexander, Master De Witt Alexander, Miss Marie Wing, and Miss Betty Wilets on "Miss Betsy Redmond."
Carl Klein.

A favorite place for the youngsters at Hot Springs. Jimmy, Hope and Billy Bryan, children of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Bryan of Garden City and New York, in the sand box.
International.